

Badger Docs –Financial Detail Report

Detailed Financial reports provide a means for flexibly defining detailed data sets. By combining an assortment of parameters and the ability to use wildcards staff members can readily create data sets for a variety of analysis needs.

Badger Docs –Financial Detail Report

The screenshot shows the 'Badger Financial Detail Report for SNC' window. The interface includes a menu bar with 'Window', 'Equipment Actions', 'Process Actions', 'Reservation Actions', 'History Actions', 'Staff Actions', 'Supplies', and 'Help'. A sidebar on the left shows a tree view with 'Stanford Nano' and 'Flexible C' expanded, and 'NanoS' selected. The main area contains a form with the following fields:

- Lab: SNC
- Report: Financial Detail
- Account type: all
- Activity type: all
- Equipment: all
- Member email: *
- Account: *
- Display data from: 03/2012 to 04/2012

Buttons for 'Cancel' and 'Display' are at the bottom of the form. A blue instruction line reads: 'Enter the requested information above and click display.'

Three callout boxes provide instructions:

- 'Select the parameters that you're interested in.' (points to the dropdown menus)
- 'The asterisk is a wild card and will select all values of any length.' (points to the asterisks in the Member email and Account fields)
- 'Select the appropriate date range.' (points to the date range input)

The screenshot displays the 'Stanford Shared Facilities (mbell@stanford.edu) Badger' application window. The main interface includes a menu bar (Window, Equipment Actions, Process Actions, Reservation Actions, History Actions, Staff Actions, Supplies, Help) and a toolbar (Reservations, History, Maintenance, Policy, Equipment Status, Staff Charges). A tree view on the left shows the hierarchy: SNC, Stanford Nano Center, Stanford NanoPatterning Cleanroom, Flexible Clean Room, and NanoSIMS_snc. A modal dialog box titled 'Badger Financial Detail Report for SNC' is open, featuring the following fields:

- Lab: SNC
- Report: Financial Detail
- Account type: all
- Activity type: all
- Equipment: all
- Member email: m*
- Account: *
- Display data from: 03/2011 to 04/2012

Buttons for 'Cancel' and 'Display' are located at the bottom of the dialog. A callout bubble points to the 'Member email' field with the text: "Type in an entire email or use wild cards. This will select all members starting with an 'm'." Below the dialog, a blue link reads: "Enter the requested information above and click display."
